

Appearance Day of Lord Varaha

ISKCON, Portland ~ February 20, 2005

Carved Stela, 18th c. Tibet

In honor of Lord Varaha's Appearance Day, the devotees at the ISKCON Portland temple were fortunate to hear of the Lord's pastimes from Amala Bhakta dasa.

The following collection of images was gathered from the Transcendental Art Gallery at HareKrsna.com, and distributed for the pleasure of Srila Prabhupada and the community of devotees.

Lord Varaha, ki jai!

Painting on Mica
South India

Gold Stela
16th c. Newari, Nepal

Illustration by S. Tagore
Calcutta, 1880

Marble Stela, 19th c.

Painting by B.G. Sharma

Contemporary Painting

Temple Carving, Khajurajo

Temple Carving, Belur

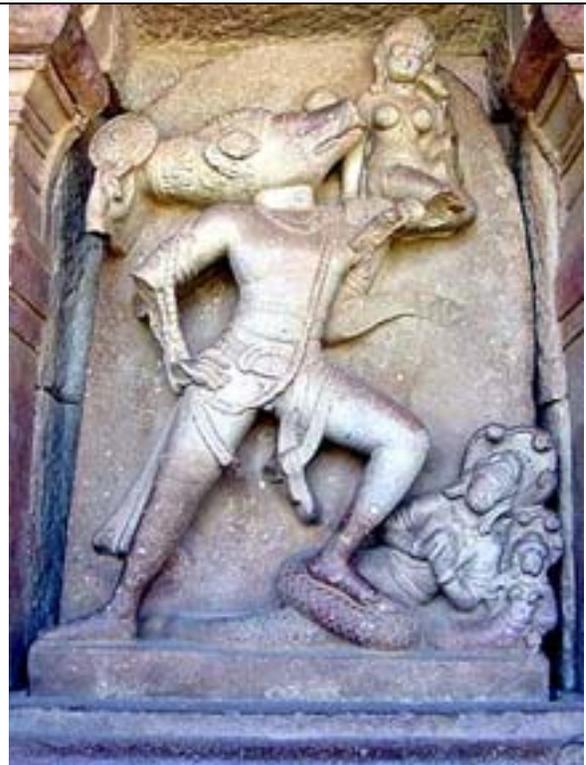

Engraving by Shorbel, c. 1820

Temple Carving

Lord Varaha Mask
Kerala, late 17th c. Bronze

Durga Temple, Aihole

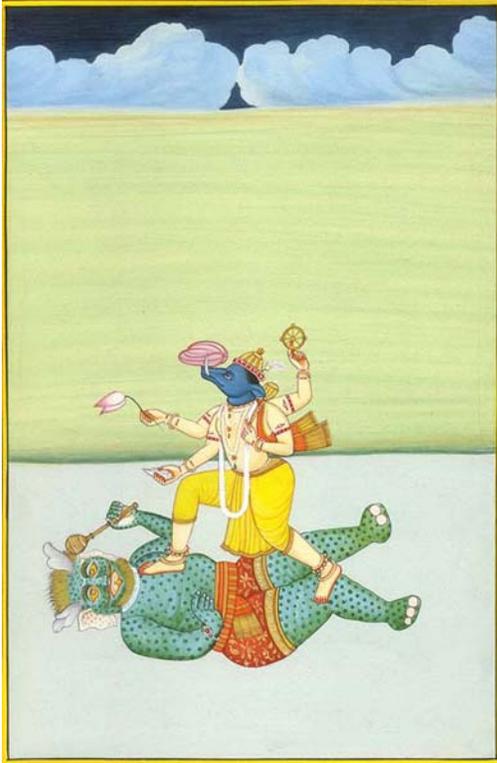

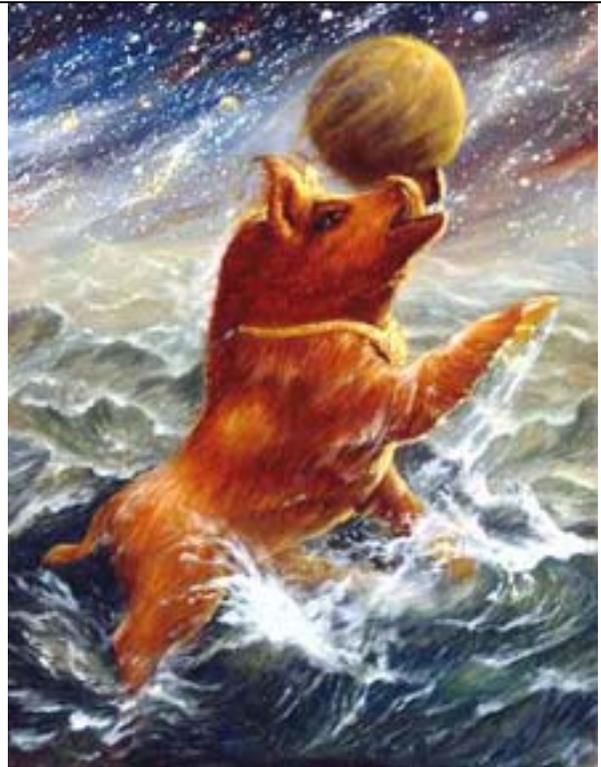

Illustration from Bhagavat Purana,
Modern Reproduction

Temple Carving, Java

Temple Carving, Madhya Pradesh

© Bhaktivedanta Book Trust

Illustration from Bhagavat Purana

Illustration from Bhagavat Purana

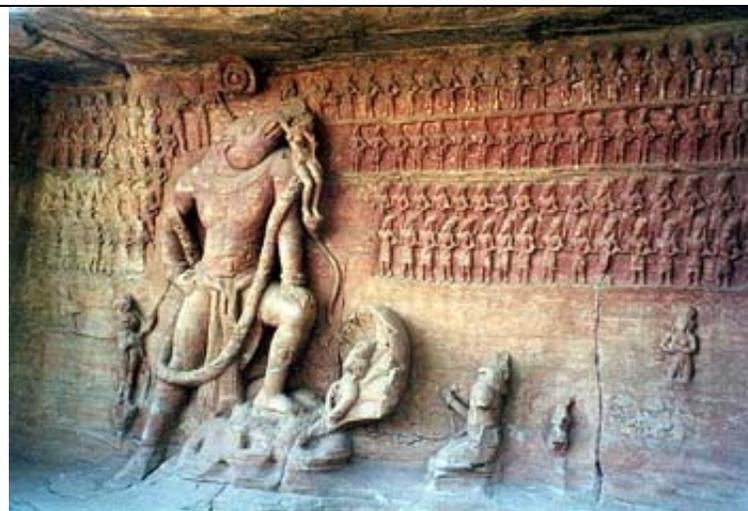

Jayadeva's Gita Govinda
by Pradeep Mukherjee, Phad style of Rajasthan

Temple Painting of Dasavatara

Lord Varaha, Bhopal Museum

Temple Carving, Madhya Pradesh

Carrying Bhu devi, Badami Caves, 6th c.